

RALLY SCHEDULE

Friday, May 2

Arrivals / Check-in

KOA check-in times are 2:00PM for RV and tent sites; 3:00PM for cabins/lodges

AHRMA vintage road races, Sonoma Raceway (optional)

Second of two days of vintage racing - 46 miles to track, round trip (no chase truck). See your map packet.

6:00PM: Bar opens, Rec Hall

8:00PM: Guest speaker, California Highway Patrol, Rec Hall tent

Learn the whys and wherefores of the California Vehicle Code.

10:00PM: Rec Hall closes

Saturday, May 3

7:30AM: Rec Hall opens

10:00AM: Ride to Walnut Park departs from Entry driveway

We ride through central Petaluma to the Park; circle the square and park bikes around the perimeter - 4 miles to Park (no chase truck)

10:30AM: Official Opening ceremony, Walnut Park

Greetings from the Mayor of Petaluma; the Rally will be officially opened. The "Petaluma Yesteryears" in period costume will perform a brief historical entertainment. During the afternoon, visit the local restaurants, shops, Historical Museum, or perhaps General Vallejo's Petaluma Adobe on Lakeville Highway. See your map packet for additional riding options.

6:00PM: Bar opens, Rec hall

8:00PM: "Prince of Darkness" ride departs from Entry driveway

With all electrical systems functioning, BSAs will take a leisurely ride of 19 miles through the countryside in search of clues. See your map packet for the route sheet – no map! Scoring will be announced at the Diner/dance on Wednesday evening

10:00PM Rec Hall closes

Sunday, May 4

7:30AM: Rec Hall opens

9:30AM: Sonoma Coast ride departs from Entry driveway

Take a tour north of the campsite, through the villages of Valley Ford and Occidental, and via California Highway 1, across the Russian River to Fort Ross, the southernmost outpost of the Russian fur trade until the 19th century.

Return via Bodega Bay (maybe take a short side trip to the village of Bodega itself, the site for the filming of Alfred Hitchcock's The Birds), and/or a stop at the Washoe House, the oldest roadhouse in California. Total is 112.7 miles; chase truck driver is Jim McAleer, 707-206-8394

6:00PM: Bar opens, Rec Hall

8:00PM: An Evening with Jeff Smith, Rec Hall tent

Ex World Champion Motocross rider and BSAOCNC Honorary Member Jeff Smith will chat and take questions about his days with "The BSA". A replica of his 1967 Motocross championship BSA will be on display along with as a replica of the bike Jeff rode to his first British Trials championship, restored by Dick Mann.

10:00PM: Rec Hall closes

Monday, May 5

7:30AM: Rec Hall opens

8:45AM: San Francisco Tour boards at the Entry driveway

Motor coaches depart at 9:00AM and return at 5:30PM, taking in the Golden Gate Bridge, Chinatown, the Presidio, the Cliff House, the Painted Ladies (Victorian houses, not women!), Ghirardelli Square, Golden Gate Park, Pier 39, Lombard Street, and several neighborhoods including the Haight/Ashbury, Nob Hill, North Beach, and Pacific Heights. You will have lunch options at Fisherman's Wharf.

9:30AM: Point Reyes ride departs from Entry driveway

A westward ride from the campsite to the coast and more of Highway 1, to the Point Reyes Lighthouse, and return. Find lunch options and gas in the village of Point Reyes Station, site of the former railroad station (which still stands on the street). Total is 105.8 miles, chase truck driver is Paul Zell, 415-264-2544.

6:00PM: Bar opens, Rec Hall

8:00PM: An Evening with Jim Rice, Rec Hall tent

Former AMA competitor, BSA factory rider and BSAOCNC Honorary Member Jim Rice will chat and share a slide show of photos. On hand will be an original Rob North factory road race bike (one of ten produced).

10:00PM: Rec Hall closes

Tuesday, May 6

7:30AM: Rec Hall opens

10:00AM: Sonoma ride departs from Entry driveway

The BSA Line-up will take place after a short ride, in the center of the Spanish colonial town of Sonoma. We will assemble the bikes in the Casa Grande parking lot, immediately North of the Plaza (behind the Barracks). Stay about for a moment as we take a group photo. Security will be provided for the bikes, so you can leave riding gear aboard as you explore the village. You can visit local shops, the adobe church of Mission San Francisco Solano, the Barracks which housed the army, and take lunch at one of the several local cafes and restaurants, all of which border the shady Plaza. This is an ideal time, on the way back to camp, to visit the historic Petaluma Adobe, which was Mariano Vallejo's ranching / supply station. Total is 39.4 miles round trip, Ed Meagor in the chase truck, 415-413-0536.

2:00PM: Dirt track / MX laps, Liberty Field

A small dirt track facility is located on Stony Point Road, ½ mile north of the campsite, for use by anyone wanting to exercise their motocross, trials, or flat-track bikes. Admission is $20 for bike and rider; free to spectators.

6:00PM: Bar opens, Rec Hall

8:00PM: An Evening with Dick Mann, Rec Hall tent

Former AMA National Champion, BSA Daytona winner and BSAOCNC Honorary Member Dick Mann will chat and take questions about his years in competition with BSA motorcycles. On hand will be one of Dick's flat track BSAs, and the 250cc BSA used by him in the 1970s TransAm races.

10:00PM: Rec Hall closes

Wednesday, May 7

7:30AM: Rec Hall opens

8:45AM: Winery Tour boards at the Entry driveway

The Winery Tour will depart at 9:00AM to two local wineries, with guided tours at each. Wine tasting fees which may be charged by the respective wineries are NOT included in the tour price, but can be purchased on the day at each winery. Lunch will be available in downtown Healdsburg Square.

9:30AM: Napa Valley ride departs from Entry driveway

We'll ride to the East, over the hills for a circuit of the Napa valley. There are coffee/lunch options in Glen Ellen, St. Helena, and Calistoga. Return via the Silverado Trail to Napa, then Sonoma and Petaluma. Total is 107.4 miles, Kevin Burrell in the chase truck, 415-518-8066.

6:00PM: Buses depart for Dinner/Dance, Entry driveway

Our traditional gala event and banquet will take place at the Veterans' Memorial Hall, 1094 Petaluma Boulevard South, Petaluma. Bus service is available for all who don't want to drive (or shouldn't). If you drive, parking is behind the building. The bar opens at 6:00PM; dinner will be served at 7, followed by the usual shenanigans. Dance to the music of the Lonestar Retrobates, a local western swing band. No bar service in Rec Hall tonight – but you can get drinks at the KOA store, if you stay behind.

10:00PM: Rec Hall closes

12:00PM Last bus leaves from Dinner/Dance

Thursday, May 8

7:0AM: Rec Hall opens

9:30AM: Mount Tamalpais/Marin Coast ride departs from Entry driveway

This ride takes us to the South, through western Marin County, to the summit of Mount Tamalpais. Enjoy panoramic views of San Francisco Bay; there is a short loop hike around the summit of the mountain. Return via the Muir Woods area (the Park contains a magnificent stand of original, old-growth redwoods), Stinson Beach (good lunch stop), Point Reyes Station, back to Petaluma. Total is 105 miles, Jim Romain in the chase truck, 707-696-5004.

4:00PM: International Committee meeting

Washoe House, 2840 Stony Point Road (4.5 miles North)

International Rally Delegates/Representatives only

6:00PM Bar opens, Rec Hall

6:00PM: Barbeque served, Rec Hall

Casual dining and drinks on site, followed by a Karaoke night sing-along with music by a local DJ.

10:00PM: Rec Hall closes

Friday, May 9

7:30AM: Rec Hall opens

Check out / Departure

KOA check-out time is 11:00AM

SEE YOU NEXT YEAR IN DENMARK!